

2023 Wisconsin Teacher Shortage Summit

We know that the educator shortage is a nationwide crisis. As a national educational organization, the American Association of School Personnel Administrators has been addressing the issue on multiple fronts, by dedicating resources, professional development, advocacy, and data to support our members.

Kelly Coash Johnson, Executive Director, AASPA

Outcomes:

- Deepen understanding of national, state and local teacher shortage data
- Explore strategies for short-term and long-term solutions to local teacher shortages
- Collaborate with diverse stakeholders to apply learnings and identify concrete action steps
- Commit to local and statewide implementation items
